

Business Services

Economic Development Services

Market Data: Economic development staff can provide up-to-date information on commercial real estate and average lease rates.

Business Directory: This online listing of all licensed businesses is a great resource to find local opportunities to purchase goods and services.

Business Advocacy and Technical Assistance: The Economic Development team can help with variety of business related issues.

City of Westminster Business Services

Libraries: The City's libraries have myriad of products and services available to businesses from the obvious to the unexpected to include: access to various business journals and references, free classes for business owners, study rooms, meeting rooms, computers and printers.

Recreational Facilities: Westminster businesses and their employees are eligible for discounted admissions to the City's recreation facilities. This includes meeting rooms that are able to accommodate groups up to 300.

Police and Fire Departments: In addition to keeping the City safe, Police and Fire personnel provide training in the areas of: fire extinguisher, first aid & CPR, emergency planning, fire alarm drills, security surveys, and more.

Partner Agency Services

The City strategically supports and partners with outside agencies in order to extend services and opportunities to our local businesses.

Small Business Development Center (SBDC): The Front Range Community College, SBDC Center offers business services and training to help start, grow or sustain your businesses.

Westminster Chamber: Has been serving Westminster since 2013 and they partner with the City to improve the business climate and build opportunities for growth through advocacy, events, and direct member services.