SBA will begin accepting PPP applications on Monday, April 27

President Trump signed a $320 billion stimulus package into law on Friday, April 24, 2020 in order to fund the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP).

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) will begin processing PPP applications at 8:30 a.m. Monday, April 27, 2020. The PPP program provides small businesses, with 500 or less employees, loans of up to $10 million, which can be forgiven under certain circumstances. Small businesses may apply for the PPP program through any existing SBA 7(a) lender.

The City of Westminster recently surveyed numerous local banks to help identify which banks will accept PPP applications. See the results of the survey here.
