

Guidelines

- Grant awards are capped at $5,000, plus an additional 25%, or $1,250, if hiring from a Westminster institution.
- Documentation of training costs, on the job training (OJT) or a combination of both is required prior to reimbursement.
- Businesses may apply once a year, and may not receive more than $5,000 maximum, or $6,250 if hiring from a Westminster institution, within the current year.
- Reimbursement is only valid for costs expended within the current year of application; expenditures exceeding the allowable amount will be carried forward, business must reapply, and any expenses carried forward will count towards the next calendar year.
- Must follow all state and federal hiring laws.
- Grants are awarded as funding allows; qualified applications will be scored by a committee based on adherence to project.

Process

- Return fully completed application to the Economic Development Department; Application must include a project budget with qualified estimates for training costs.
- Applicant will be notified of project approval within three weeks of application deadline.
- Upon completion of training, submit all project related receipts, invoices and supporting payment documentation.
- Please redact all sensitive information.
- Schedule a project inspection with staff.
- Await approval and reimbursement, usually 2-4 weeks.
